NEW PARENT RESOURCES

New Parent Resources is brought to you by Down Syndrome Association for Families of Nebraska Medical Outreach and is intended to help new or expectant parents learn more about the condition and provide accurate and up to date information about their baby's future. Receiving a diagnosis that your baby will have Down syndrome can be overwhelming. We invite you to contact our organization so we may offer support.

For more interaction with fellow families, visit the Down Syndrome Association for Families (DSAF) of Nebraska closed group on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/dsafnebraska/>) and send a request to join. Access provides a private forum in which you may ask questions, post joys and concerns (and photos!), or simply follow discussion threads for information, resources, advice and support.

If you would like to meet a fellow parent who also has a child with Down syndrome, we encourage you to contact Holly at 402.601.2498 or medicaloutreach@dsafnebraska.org.
